

I am writing to request that the FCC begin a systematic review of communication towers and bird mortality and that effective protections of the birds be implemented immediately and that reviews of communication towers are done on a regular basis with a view to reducing bird mortality.